

You Are Invited To a Celebration of Recovery!

In recognition of National Alcohol and Drug Addiction Recovery Month, Clark County's Substance Abuse Advisory Board (SAAB) will host the Clark County Recovery Forum on Saturday, September 5, 2015 in the Gaiser Center at Clark College, 1933 Fort Vancouver Way, Vancouver, WA 98663.

A BBQ dinner will be provided (free while supplies last) from 4:30pm-6:00pm and the forum will be from 6:00pm-8:00pm.

This year's theme of National Alcohol and Drug Addiction Recovery Month is "Join the Voices of Recovery! Visible, Vocal, Valuable!"

This energy-filled event celebrates Clark County residents who have been affected by addiction and have made steps toward long-term recovery.

Board of Clark County Councilors Chair, David Madore will read the Clark County proclamation for Alcohol and Drug Addiction Recovery Month.

Fletcher Drew and Mandy Ingraham will share their stories of recovery.

Since this is the final year that the SAAB will host the event, they will be recognizing all board members with certificates of appreciation.

Organizers hope that by bringing together individuals, affected families and treatment providers, the celebration will encourage others toward recovery.

The forum is an opportunity for the community to learn about the realities and challenges of helping another person into the recovery process and about local resources that make recovery possible.

In order for coordinators to plan logistics and food accordingly, RSVP by contacting Cyndi Smith at 360-397-2075 x7835 or cyndi.smith@clark.wa.gov.
